

Hi Nadeem

I hope you are well.

The results of the sixth annual APAC Business Awards have been determined and on behalf of APAC Insider, it is my pleasure to inform you that Nulife, Consultants & Distributor Pvt Ltd has been awarded:

Most Innovative Global Medical Device Manufacturers & Distributors 2021

Our Selection Process

As in previous years, APAC Insider has endeavoured to ensure that only the most deserving are recognised. All nominees were judged on their merits with assessment centred around an extensive evaluation of skills and services on offer.

Our merit driven approach has brought us much commendation throughout its use and allows our team to identify only the most outstanding companies from across the APAC region.

To move successfully from nominee to awardee there must be evidence of expertise within a given field, dedication to customer service and an ongoing commitment to excellence and innovation.

Once again, congratulations on your award!

Please get in touch if you have any questions.

Kind regards,

Katherine Benton - Awards Executive - APAC Insider
